Then he said: ‘Perhaps it (the punishment) will be reduced for them so long as this does not dry out.’”

News of that reached the Jews and they said: "This man does not want to leave any of our affairs, but he differs from us therein." Usaid bin Hudair and 'Abbād bin Bishr came and said: "O Messenger of Allāh, the Jews are saying such and such. Why don't we have intercourse with them (the women)?" (التحفة ١)

[837] 1 - (377) Nâfi', the freed slave of Ibn 'Umar, narrated that 'Abdullâh bin 'Umar said: "When the Muslims came to Al-Madīnah, they would gather and they would wait for the time for the prayer to come, but no one would watch and announce the times. One day they spoke about that. Some of them said: (to call the people for prayers) 'Use a bell like the bell of the Christians.' Some of them said: 'Use a horn like the horn of the Jews.' 'Umar said: 'It is better to send a man to cail (the people) to prayer.' The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said: 'O Bilâl, get up and give the call to prayer.'"

The time for prayer became due, and the Mu'adhdhin came to Abû Bakr and said: "Will you lead the people in prayer, and I will say the Iqâmah?" He said: "Yes." So Abû Bakr led the people in prayer, then the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ came while the people were still praying. He came and stood in the row, and the people started clapping. Abû Bakr would not pay attention to anything while he was praying, but when the people's clapping increased, he turned around and saw the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ. Then Abû Bakr moved backwards until he was level with the row, and

Chapter 31. Moderation When Reciting Qur'ân In A Prayer When It Is To Be Recited Out Loud, And Making It Neither Too Loud Nor Too Soft, And When There Is The Fear Of Negative Consequences If It Is Recited Out Loud

[1001] 145 - (446) It was narrated that Ibn 'Abbâs said, concerning the saying of Allâh the Most High: "... And offer your Ṣalât (prayer) neither aloud nor in a low voice..."^[1] This was revealed when the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ was hiding in Makkah. When he led his Companions in prayer, he raised his voice when reciting Qur'ân, but when the idolators heard it, they reviled the Qur'ân, and the One Who had revealed it, and the one who had brought it. So Allâh said to His Prophet ﷺ: "...And offer your Ṣalât (prayer) neither aloud..." lest the idolators hear your recitation, "... nor in a low voice...", lest your Companions be unable to hear it; let them hear the Qur'ân, but do not recite so loudly, "... but follow a way between..." meaning, neither too loud nor too soft."

Then Allâh, the Most High revealed: "Move not your tongue concerning it to make haste therewith" meaning, in learning it. (O Allâh, our Lord, to You be praise, filling the heavens, filling the earth, and filling whatever You will besides that, Lord of Glory and Majesty, none can withhold what You bestow and none can bestow what You withhold, nor can the fortune of the fortunate avail him anything before You.)”

Al-Hakam said: “I mentioned that to ‘Abdur-Raḥmân bin Abî Laila and he said: ‘I heard Al-Barâ’ bin ‘Âzib say: “The Ṣalât of the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ, his bowing, when he lifted his head from bowing, his prostration and his (sitting) between the two prostrations were almost all equal in length.”

Shu’bah said: “I mentioned that to ‘Amr bin Murrah and he said: ‘I saw Ibn Abî Laila, and his prayer was not like that.”

[1059] (...) It was narrated from Al-Hakam that when Maṭar bin Nâjiyah took over Al-Kûfah, he commanded Abû ‘Ubaidah to lead the people in prayer... and he quoted the same Ḥadîth (no. 1056).

رَأْسُهُ مِنَ الرُّكُوعِ قَامَ قَدَرَ مَا أَقُولُ:

[1060] 195 - (472) It was narrated from Thâbit, that Anas said: "I try my best to lead you in prayer as I saw the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ lead us in prayer."

He said: "Anas used to do something that I have not seen you do. When he raised his head from bowing, he would stand so long that one would think that he had forgotten, and when he raised his head from prostrating, he would remain so long that one would think that he had forgotten."

[1061] 196 - (473) It was narrated that Anas said: "I have never prayed behind anyone who made the prayer so brief yet perfect as the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ did. The prayer of the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ was well balanced. And the prayer of Abû Bakr was well balanced, too. During the time of 'Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭâb, he made the Fajr prayer lengthy. But when the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said: 'Sami'a Allâhu liman hamidah,' he would stand for so long that we would think, he has forgotten. Then he would prostrate, and he would sit for so long between the two prostrations that would we think he has forgotten."

Chapter 41. The Prohibition Of Reciting The Qur'ân While Bowing And Prostrating

[1074] 207 - (479) It was narrated that Ibn 'Abbâs said: "The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ (during his fatal illness) drew back the curtain and the people were lined up in rows behind Abû Bakr. He said: 'O people, there is nothing left of the glad tidings of Prophethood except a good dream that a Muslim sees or that is seen for him. Be it known that I have been forbidden to recite the Qur'ân when bowing or prostrating. As for bowing, glorify your Lord [the Mighty and Sublime] therein, and as for prostrating, strive in supplication, for it is deserving of a response (from your Lord).'"

Chapter 43. The Virtue Of Prostration And Encouragement To Do So

[1093] 225 - (488) Ma’dân bin Abî Ṭalhah Al-Ya’murî said: “I met Ṭhawbân, the freed slave of the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ, and said: ‘Tell me of a deed that I may do, by which Allâh may admit me to Paradise’” - or he said: ‘Tell me of the most beloved of deeds to Allâh.’ He remained silent. I asked him (again) and he remained silent. I asked him a third time and he said: ‘I asked the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ about that and he said: You should prostrate to Allâh a great deal, for you will not perform one prostration to Allâh, but Allâh will raise you one degree in status thereby, and erase one sin for you.’”

Ma'dân said: "Then I met Abû Ad-Dardâ' and asked him (the same question), and he said the same as Ṭhawbân had said to me."

[1094] 226 - (489) Rabî'ah bin Ka'b Al-Aslamî said: "I used to stay overnight with the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ and bring him water for Wuḍû' and whatever he needed. He said to me: 'Ask.' I said: 'I ask to be with you in Paradise.' He said: 'Is there anything else?' I said: 'That is all,' He said: 'Help me to do that for you by prostrating a great deal.'"

[١١١٠] ٢٤٠ - (٤٩٨) حَدَّثَنَا

Messenger of Allâh ﷺ used to start his prayer with the Takbîr and the recitation of Al-ḥamdu Lillâhi Rabbil-‘Âlamîn. When he bowed he neither kept his head up nor lowered it, but it was somewhere between the two. When he raised his head from bowing, he did not prostrate until he had stood up straight, and when he raised his head from prostrating, he did not prostrate again until he had sat up straight. After each two Rak‘ah he would recite At-Taḥiyyah. He would lay his left foot along the ground and hold his right foot upright. He forbade ‘Uqbatish-Shaiṭân,^[1] and he forbade resting one’s forearms along the ground like a predator. And he used to conclude his prayer with the Taslîm.”

According to the report of Ibn Numair from Abû Khâlid: “And he forbade ‘Aqibi Shaiṭân.”

He pushed him in his chest, and (the young man) looked but could not find any way to get by except by passing in front of Abû Sa'eed. So he came back, and he pushed him in the chest harder than he had the first time. He stood up and insulted Abû Sa'eed, then he pushed through the crowds, and he left, and then he entered upon Marwân and complained to him about what had happened. Chapter 10. The Permissibility Of Taking One Or Two Steps While Praying, And That Is Not Disliked If Done For A Reason. The Permissibility Of The Imâm Praying In A Place That Is Higher Than The People Praying Behind Him, If That Is Done For A Reason, Such As Teaching Them How To Offer Prayers, And Other Than That

He said: “By Allâh, I know what kind of wood it is made of, and who made it, and I saw the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ the first day he sat on it.” I said to him: “O Abû ‘Abbâs, tell us.” He said: “The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ sent word to a woman” - and Abû Hâzim said: “He named her that day” - saying: “Have your carpenter slave make me something of wood from which I may speak to the people.” So he made these three steps, then the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ ordered that it be placed in this spot. Chapter 17. Prohibiting One Who Has Eaten Garlic, Onions, Or Leeks, And Other Things That Have An Offensive Odor From Coming To The Masjid, Until That Smell Has Gone Away, And Such A Person Should Be Expelled From The Masjid

[1248] 68 - (561) It was narrated from Ibn 'Umar that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said

إِنِّي قَدْ عَلِمْتُ مِنْ أَيْنَ أَتَيْتُ، هَذَا أَذْبَتْهُ أُمُّهُ وَأَنْتَ أَذْبَتِكَ أُمُّكَ. قَالَ فَغَضِبَ الْقَاسِمُ وَأَضَبَ عَلَيْهَا. فَلَمَّا رَأَى مَائِدَةَ عَائِشَةَ قَدْ أَتَتْ بِهَا قَامَ. قَالَتْ: أَيْنَ؟ قَالَ: أَصَلِّي. قَالَتْ: اجْلِسْ. قَالَ: إِنِّي أَصَلِّي. قَالَتْ: اجْلِسْ عُذْرًا! إِنِّي سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَقُولُ: «لَا صَلَاةَ بِحَضْرَةِ الطَّعَامِ، وَلَا هُوَ يُدَافِعُهُ الْأَخْبَتَانِ».

[١٢٤٧] (...) وَحَدَّثَنَا يَحْيَى بْنُ أَيُّوبَ وَقُتَيْبَةُ بْنُ سَعِيدٍ وَابْنُ حُجْرٍ قَالُوا: حَدَّثَنَا إِسْمَاعِيلُ، وَهُوَ ابْنُ جَعْفَرٍ: أَخْبَرَنِي أَبُو حَزْرَةَ الْقَاصُّ عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ أَبِي عَتِيقٍ، عَنْ عَائِشَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ. بِمِثْلِهِ. وَلَمْ يَذْكُرْ فِي الْحَدِيثِ قِصَّةَ الْقَاسِمِ.

Some people are asking me to appoint a successor, but Allâh will not cause His religion or His Khilâfah, nor that with which He sent His Prophet ﷺ, to be lost. If death comes to me soon, then the Khilâfah is to be decided by these six men with whom the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ was pleased when he died. I know that some people will resent their choice. I have struck them with my own hands in the defense of Islam. If they do that (i.e. resent the Khilâfa), then they are the enemies of Allâh, of disbelieving and misguidance. [1560] 309 - (680) It was narrated from Abû Hurairah that when the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ returned from the campaign of Khaibar, he traveled for a night, then when he became drowsy he stopped to rest at the end of the night. He said to Bilâl: "Stand guard for us tonight." Bilâl pray as much as was decreed for him, and the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ and his Companions slept. When it was nearly dawn, Bilâl leaned against his camel, facing the east so that he could see the dawn when it came, but sleep overcame him while he was leaning against his camel. Neither the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ nor Bilâl nor any of his Companions woke up until the sun shone on them. The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ was the first of them to wake up. The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ was startled and said: "O Bilâl!" Bilâl said: "O Messenger of Allâh, may my father and mother be sacrificed for you. The same thing overtook me as overtook you (sleep)." He said: "Lead your mounts on." So they led their

When he had finished praying he said: "Whoever forgets a prayer, let him offer it when he remembers it, for Allâh says, "...And perform As-Salât for My remembrance".^[1]

Then the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ became drowsy and leaned to one side on his mount. I came to him and supported him without waking him up, until he sat upright on his mount. Then he traveled on until it was nearly dawn, and he leaned again, more so than on the two previous occasions, until he was about to fall. I came to him and supported him, and he raised his head and said: 'Who is this?' I said: 'Abû Qatâdah.' He said: 'How long have you been travelling with me like this?' I said: 'I have been travelling like this all night.' He said: 'May Allâh take care of you as you have taken care of His Prophet.' Then he said: 'Do you think that we are hidden from the people?' Then I said: 'Here is another rider, until more gathered and we were seven riders in all.' The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ turned off the road and lay down his head, then he said: 'Guard our prayer for us.' The first one to wake up was the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ, when the sun was on his back. We woke up, startled, then he said: 'Ride on.' So we rode on and traveled until the sun had risen, then he stopped and called for the water vessel I had with me, in which there was a little water. Then Bilâl called the Adhân and the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ prayed two Rak'ah, then he prayed Al-Ghadâh (Fajr), and did (in prayer) as he did every day. The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ rode on and we rode with him, and we began to whisper to one another, saying: 'What expiation is there for what we have done by neglecting our prayer?' Then he said: 'Do you not have an example in me?' Then he said: 'There is no negligence in sleep, rather negligence is the fault of one who does not pray until the time for the next prayer is due. One man kept away from the people and did not pray with us. When the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ had finished he said: 'What kept you from praying with us?' He said: 'O Prophet of Allâh, I have become Junub.' The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ told him to perform Tayammum with clean earth, and he prayed. Then he urged me to go on ahead with other riders to look for water, for we had become very thirsty. While we were travelling, we saw a woman with her feet dangling between two large water bags. We said to her: 'Where is the water?' She said: 'Too far, too far, you will not have water.' We said: 'How far is it between your family and the water?' She said: 'The distance of one day and one night.' We said: 'Go to the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ.' She said: 'Who is the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ?' We brought her to the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ and he asked her, and she told him what she had told us. And she told him that she was a widow with two orphan children. He ordered that her camel be made to kneel, then he spat into the two water bags, then he made her camel stand

So we gathered bits of bread and dates for her, and made a bundle of food for her. He said: 'Go and feed this to your children, and realize that we have not caused any loss to your water.' When she went to her people she said: 'I have met the greatest magician among mankind, or else he is a Prophet as he says,' and she told them what had happened. 6. The Book Of The Travellers' Prayer And Shortening Thereof

Chapter 1. The Travellers' Prayer And Shortening It

[1570] 1 - (685) It was narrated from 'Āishah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ, that she said: "Prayer was enjoined with two Rak'ah in each prayer, for the resident and the traveller. Then the prayer while travelling was confirmed (as being two Rak'ah) and the prayer while a resident increased."

[1571] 2 - (...) It was narrated from 'Urwah bin Az-Zubair that 'Āishah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ, said: "When Allāh enjoined the prayer it was two Rak'ah, then it was completed for the resident, but the prayer for the travelling was confirmed as it was first enjoined."

(المعجم ١) - (بَابُ صَلَاةِ الْمَسَافِرِينَ وقصرها) (التحفة ١٠٩)

[١٥٧٠] ١ - (٦٨٥) حَدَّثَنَا يَحْيَى بْنُ يَحْيَى قَالَ: قَرَأْتُ عَلَى مَالِكٍ، عَنْ صَالِحِ بْنِ كَيْسَانَ، عَنْ عُرْوَةَ بْنِ الزُّبَيْرِ، عَنْ عَائِشَةَ زَوْجِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ، أَنَّهَا قَالَتْ: فُرِضَتِ الصَّلَاةُ رَكْعَتَيْنِ رَكْعَتَيْنِ، فِي الْحَضَرِ وَالسَّفَرِ، فَأُقِرَّتْ صَلَاةُ السَّفَرِ، وَزِيدَ فِي صَلَاةِ الْحَضَرِ.

[1572] 3 - (...) It was narrated from Az-Zuhrî from 'Urwah, from 'Āishah that when the prayer was first enjoined it was two Rak'ah, then the prayer for the travelling was confirmed (as being two Rak'ah) and the prayer while a resident was completed.

Az-Zuhrî said: "I said to 'Urwah: 'Why did 'Āishah complete the prayer when travelling?'^[1] He said: 'Because she interpreted it as 'Uthmān did.'"

[1573] 4 - (686) It was narrated that Ya'la bin Umayyah said: "I said to 'Umar bin Al-Khattâb: '...There is no sin on you if you shorten As-Salât (the prayer) if you fear that the disbelievers may put you in trial (attack you)..."^[2] But now the people are safe.' He said: 'I wondered the same thing as you are wondering, and I asked the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ about that. He said: It is a charity that Allâh has bestowed upon you, so accept His charity.'"

قَالَ الزُّهْرِيُّ: قُلْتُ لِعُرْوَةَ: مَا بَالَ عَائِشَةَ تُتِمُّ فِي السَّفَرِ؟ قَالَ: إِنَّهَا تَأَوَّلَتْ كَمَا تَأَوَّلَ عُثْمَانُ.

Chapter 3. Praying In Dwellings When It Is Raining

(المعجم ٣) - (بَابُ الصَّلَاةِ فِي الرِّحَالِ فِي الْمَطَرِ) (التحفة ١١١)

[1600] 22 - (697) It was narrated from Nāfi' that Ibn 'Umar called the Adhān on a cold and windy night, and said: "Pray in your encampments." Then he said: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ used to order the Mu'adhdhin, if it was a cold and rainy night, to say: 'Pray in your encampments.'"

[١٦٠٠] ٢٢ - (٦٩٧) حَدَّثَنَا يَحْيَى بْنُ يَحْيَى قَالَ: قَرَأْتُ عَلَى مَالِكٍ، عَنْ نَافِعٍ: أَنَّ ابْنَ عُمَرَ أَذَّنَ بِالصَّلَاةِ فِي لَيْلَةٍ ذَاتِ بَرْدٍ وَرِيحٍ، فَقَالَ: أَلَا صَلُّوا فِي الرِّحَالِ، ثُمَّ قَالَ: كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَأْمُرُ الْمُؤَذِّنَ، إِذَا كَانَتْ لَيْلَةٌ بَارِدَةٌ ذَاتَ مَطَرٍ، يَقُولُ: أَلَا صَلُّوا فِي الرِّحَالِ.

[1601] 23 - (...) It was narrated from Ibn 'Umar that he gave the call to prayer on a cold, windy and rainy night, and at the end of his call he said: "Pray in your encampments, pray in your encampments." Then he said: "The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ used to order the Mu'adhdhin, if it was a cold or rainy night during a journey, to say: 'Pray in your encampments.'"

[١٦٠١] ٢٣ - (...) حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ نُمَيْرٍ: حَدَّثَنَا أَبِي: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ: حَدَّثَنِي نَافِعٌ عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ أَنَّهُ نَادَى بِالصَّلَاةِ فِي لَيْلَةٍ ذَاتِ بَرْدٍ وَرِيحٍ وَمَطَرٍ، فَقَالَ فِي آخِرِ نِدَائِهِ: أَلَا صَلُّوا فِي رِحَالِكُمْ، أَلَا صَلُّوا فِي الرِّحَالِ. ثُمَّ قَالَ: إِنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ كَانَ يَأْمُرُ الْمُؤَذِّنَ، إِذَا كَانَتْ لَيْلَةٌ بَارِدَةٌ أَوْ ذَاتَ مَطَرٍ، فِي السَّفَرِ، أَنْ يَقُولَ: أَلَا صَلُّوا فِي رِحَالِكُمْ.

[1602] 24 - (...) It was narrated from Ibn 'Umar that he gave the call to prayer in Dajnan... then he mentioned something similar (to no. 1601), and said: "Pray in your encampments," but he did not repeat a second time, "Pray in your encampments."

[1603] 25 - (698) It was narrated that Jâbir said: "We went out with the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ on a journey and it rained. He said: 'Whoever among you wants to, let him pray in his encampments.'"

[1604] 26 - (699) It was narrated that 'Abdullâh bin 'Abbâs said to his Mu'adhdhin on a rainy day: "When you say: 'I bear witness that there is none worthy of worship but Allâh and I bear witness that Muḥammad is the Messenger of Allâh,' do not say, 'Come to prayer,' rather say: 'Pray in your dwellings.'"

It was as if the people found that strange, so he said: "Are you surprised by that? One who is better than me did that (i.e., The Prophet ﷺ). Jumu'ah is obligatory, but I did not want to force you to walk in the mud and on slippery ground."

حَدَّثَنَا عُبَيْدُ اللَّهِ عَنْ نَافِعٍ، عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ أَنَّهُ نَادَى بِالصَّلَاةِ بِضَجْنَانِ ثُمَّ ذَكَرَ بِمِثْلِهِ، وَقَالَ: أَلَا صَلُّوا فِي رِحَالِكُمْ، وَلَمْ يُعِدْ. ثَانِيَةً: أَلَا صَلُّوا فِي الرَّحَالِ، مِنْ قَوْلِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ.

[١٦٠٤] ٢٦ - (٦٩٩) حَدَّثَنِي عَلِيُّ ابْنُ حُجْرٍ السَّعْدِيُّ: حَدَّثَنَا إِسْمَاعِيلُ عَنْ عَبْدِ الْحَمِيدِ صَاحِبِ الزِّيَادِيِّ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ الْحَارِثِ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَبَّاسٍ أَنَّهُ قَالَ لِمُؤَدِّهِ فِي يَوْمٍ مَطِيرٍ: إِذَا قُلْتَ: أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ، أَشْهَدُ أَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ، فَلَا تَقُلْ: حَيَّ عَلَى الصَّلَاةِ، قُلْ: صَلُّوا فِي بُيُوتِكُمْ.

قَالَ: فَكَأَنَّ النَّاسَ اسْتَنْكَرُوا ذَلِكَ، فَقَالَ: أَتَعْجَبُونَ مِنْ ذَا؟ قَدْ فَعَلَ ذَا مَنْ هُوَ خَيْرٌ مِنِّي، إِنَّ الْجُمُعَةَ عَزْمَةٌ، وَإِنِّي كَرِهْتُ أَنْ أُخْرِجَكُمْ فَتَمْشُوا فِي الطِّينِ وَالْدَّخْصِ.

[1605] 27 - (...) It was narrated that 'Abdul-Hamîd said: "I heard 'Abdullâh bin Al-Hârith say: "Abdullâh bin 'Abbâs addressed us on a rainy day..." and he quoted a Hadîth like that of Ibn 'Ulayyah (no. 1604), but he did not mention Jumu'ah. Chapter 27. It Is Recommended To Recite For A Long Time In The Night Prayers

(المعجم ٢٧) - (بَابُ اسْتِحْبَابِ تَطْوِيلِ الْقِرَاءَةِ فِي صَلَاةِ اللَّيْلِ)

[1814] 203 - (772) It was narrated that Hudhaifah said: "I prayed with the Prophet ﷺ one night, and he started to recite Al-Baqarah and I thought: 'He will bow when he reaches one hundred (verses),' but he carried on. Then I thought that he would finish it in the two Rak'ah, but he carried on. Then I thought he would bow after finishing it, but he started to recite An-Nisâ' and recited it all, then he started to recite Âl-Imrân and recited it all, reciting with a slow and measured pace. When he reached a verse that spoke of glorifying Allâh, he glorified Allâh; when he reached a verse that spoke of asking of Him, he asked of Him; when he reached a verse that spoke of seeking refuge with Him, he sought refuge with Him. Then he bowed and started saying: 'Subhâna Rabbil-'Azîm (Glory be to my Lord the Almighty).' And his bowing was almost as long as his standing. Then he said: 'Sami' Allâhu liman

He said: "He has sent me to uphold the ties of kinship, to break the idols and to proclaim that Allâh is to be singled out (for worship) and that none is to be associated with Him." I said to him: "Who do you have with you?" He said: "A free man and a slave" - at that time he had Abû Bakr and Bilâl with him among those who believed in him. I said: "I want to follow you." He said: "You cannot do that right now. Do you not see my situation and the situation of the people? Go back to your family, then when you hear that I have been granted victory, come to me." So I went to my family, and the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ arrived in Al-Madînah while I was with my family. I started to ask people for news after he arrived in Al-Madînah, until there came to me a group of people from Yathrib - Al-Madînah - and I said: "What did this man who came to Al-Madînah do?" They said: "The people are hastening to follow him, and his people wanted to kill him but they were not able to." I arrived in Al-Madînah and entered upon him, and said: "O

Chapter 53. Do Not Aim To Pray When The Sun Is Rising Or Setting

[1931] 295 - (833) It was narrated that 'Āishah said: "Umar misunderstood; the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ only forbade pursuing the rising of the sun or its setting (with prayer)."

[١٩٣٣] ٢٩٧ - (٨٣٤) حَدَّثَنِي حَرَمَلَةُ بْنُ يَحْيَى التَّجِيبِيُّ: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ ابْنُ وَهْبٍ: أَخْبَرَنِي عُمَرُ وَهُوَ ابْنُ الْحَارِثِ عَنْ بُكَيْرٍ، عَنْ كُرَيْبٍ مَوْلَى ابْنِ

to 'Āishah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ, saying: "Convey greetings of Salām to her from all of us, and ask her about the two Rak'ah after ʿAṣr, and say: 'We have been informed that you pray them, but we heard that the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ forbade that.'" Ibn 'Abbās said: "I, along with 'Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb, used to tell the people not to do that."

Kuraib said: "So I entered upon her and conveyed to her the message they had sent with me. She said: 'Ask Umm Salamah.' So I went out to them and told them what she had said. They sent me to Umm Salamah with a message like that with which they had sent me to 'Āishah. Umm Salamah said: 'I heard the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ forbidding them (the two Rak'ah after ʿAṣr), then I saw him praying them. But when he prayed them, he had already prayed ʿAṣr, then he entered upon me and there were some women from Banū Ḥarām, who were among the Anṣār, with me. He prayed them, and I sent the slave girl to him. I said: 'Stand beside him, and say to him: "Umm Salamah says to you: 'O Messenger of Allāh, I heard you forbidding these two Rak'ah, but now I see you praying them.'" If he gestures to you with his hand, then leave him.' The slave girl did that, and he gestured to her with his hand, so she left him.

Chapter 17. The Virtue Of Offering The Funeral Prayer And Following The Bier

(المعجم ١٧) - (باب فضل الصلاة على الجنائز واتباعها) (التحفة ١٧)

[2189] 52 - (945) Abû Hurairah said: "The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said: 'Whoever attends a funeral until the prayer is offered will have one Qîrât (of reward), and whoever attends until (the body) is buried will have two Qîrât.'" It was said: "What are the two Qîrâts?" He said: "Like two huge mountains." The end of the Hadîth of Abû Aṭ-Ṭāhir.

The other two added: Ibn Shihâb said: "Sâlim bin 'Abdullâh bin 'Umar said: 'Ibn 'Umar used to offer the funeral prayer and then leave.' When he heard the Hadîth of Abû Hurairah he said: 'We have missed out on many Qîrât.'" .

وَزَادَ الْآخَرَانِ: قَالَ ابْنُ شِهَابٍ: قَالَ سَالِمُ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُمَرَ: وَكَانَ ابْنُ عُمَرَ يُصَلِّي عَلَيْهَا ثُمَّ يَنْصَرِفُ؛ فَلَمَّا بَلَغَهُ حَدِيثُ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ قَالَ: لَقَدْ ضَيَعْنَا فِي قَرَارِيطَ كَثِيرَةٍ.

[2190] (...) It was narrated from Abû Hurairah from the Prophet ﷺ (a similar Hadîth as no. 2189) as far as the words: "two huge mountains," and they did not mention what comes after that. In the Hadîth of 'Abd Al-A'la it says: "Until (the funeral) is finished." In the Hadîth of 'Abdur-Razzâq it says: "Until (the body) is placed in the Laḥd (Grave)."

Chapter 21. What Was Narrated Concerning One Who Finds Relief And One From Whom Relief Is Found

[2202] 61 - (950) It was narrated that Abû Qatâdah bin Rib'î narrated that a funeral passed by the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ and he said: "One who has found relief and one from whom relief has been found." They said: "O Messenger of Allâh, who is the one who has found relief and the one from whom relief has been found?" He said: "The believing person has found relief from the troubles of this world; and the people, the land, the trees and the animals have found relief from the evil person."

[2203] (...) It was also narrated from Abû Qatâdah from the Prophet ﷺ (a similar Hadîth as no. 2202). In the Hadîth of Yahyâ bin Sa'eed it says: "He has found relief from the troubles and hardships of this world in the mercy of Allâh."

Chapter 9. Encouragement To Give Charity

(المعجم ٩) - (بَابُ التَّرْغِيبِ فِي

الصدقة) (التحفة ١٠)

[2304] 32 - (94) It was narrated that Abû Dharr said: "I was walking with the Prophet ﷺ in the Ḥarrah of Al-Madīnah one afternoon, and we were looking at Uḥud (mountain). The Messenger of Allāh ﷺ said to me: 'O Abû Dharr!' I said: 'Here I am at your service, O Messenger of Allāh.' He said: 'I would not like to have this Uḥud of gold and a third night comes and I have a Dīnār left of it, except a Dīnār that I put aside for debt, without giving it to the slaves of Allāh like this - and he gestured in front of him - and like this - to his right - and like this - to his left.' Then we walked on and he said: 'O Abû Dharr!' I said: 'Here I am at your service, O Messenger of Allāh.' He said: 'Those who have the most will have the least on the Day of Resurrection, except those who do like this and like this and like this' - (and he gestured) as he had done the first time. Then we walked on, and he said: 'O Abû Dharr, stay where you are until I come to you.' He set off until he disappeared from me, and I heard a voice and a sound. I said: 'Perhaps something has happened to the Messenger of Allāh ﷺ,' and I thought of following him, then I remembered what he had said: 'Do not leave until I come to you.'

I said: "I can see it." He said: "I would not like to have its equivalent in gold without spending all of it except for three Dinâr, but these people gather worldly wealth and do not understand anything." I said: "What is the matter with you and your brothers of the Quraish, that you do not ask them for anything and do not get any help from them?" It was narrated that Al-Aḥnaf bin Qais said: "I was with a group of the Quraish when Abû Dharr passed by saying: 'Give tidings to the hoarders of a branding-iron on their backs that will come out from their sides, and a branding-iron at the back of their necks that will come out from their foreheads.' Then he went away and sat down. I said: 'Who is that?' They said: 'That is Abû Dharr.' I got up and went to him, and said: 'What did I hear you say just now?' He said: 'I did not say anything that I did not hear from their Prophet ﷺ.' I said: 'What do you say about this gift?' He said: 'Take it, for it is a help today, but if it is at the expense of your religious commitment, then leave it.'"

(التحفة ١٤)

[2313] 41 - (997) It was narrated that Jâbir said: "A man from Banû 'Udhrah declared that a slave of his would be set free upon his death.^[1] News of that reached the Prophet ﷺ and he said: 'Do you have any other wealth?' He said: 'No.' He said: 'Who will buy him from me?' Nu'aim bin 'Abdullâh Al-'Adawî bought him for eight hundred Dirham. The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ brought (the money) and gave it to him, then he said: 'Start with yourself and give charity to yourself. If there is anything left over, then (give) to your family. If there is anything left over, then (give) to your family, then (give) to your relatives. If there is anything left over from your relatives, then (Spend it) like this and like this,'"

Chapter 20. Encouragement To Give Charity Even If It Is With Half A Date Or A Kind Word, And Charity Is A Shield Against The Fire

[2347] 66 - (1016) It was narrated that ‘Adiyy bin Hātim said: “I heard the Prophet ﷺ say: ‘Whoever among you can shield himself from the Fire, even with half a date, let him do so.’”

So protect yourselves from the Fire, even if it is with half a date.’”

Chapter 23. The Likeness Of The Giver And The Miser

[2359] 75 - (1021) It was narrated from Abû Hurairah that the Prophet said: "The likeness of the one who spends and gives charity is that of a man who is wearing two cloaks or two coats of chain-mail from his chest to his collar bone. But when the miser wants to spend, it contracts for him and each ring grips its place, (but for the giver it expands) until it covers his fingertips and erases his footsteps." Chapter 34. The Poor Person Who Cannot Find Enough To Make Him Independent Of Means, But The People Do Not Realize That He Is In Need, So They Do Not Give Charity To Him

(المعجم ٣٤) - (بَابُ الْمَسْكِينِ الَّذِي لَا يَجِدُ غِنًى، وَلَا يَفْطِنُ لَهُ فَيَتَصَدَّقُ عَلَيْهِ) (التحفة ٣٥)

The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ stood up and addressed them; he praised and glorified Allâh, then he said: "O Anṣâr, did I not find you astray, then Allâh guided you through me? Were you not destitute, then Allâh made you rich through me? Were you not divided, then Allâh united you through me?" They said: "Allâh and His Messenger are most generous." He said: "Are you not going to answer me?" They said: "Allâh and His Messenger are most generous." He said: "If you wish you may say such-and-such, and such-and-such happened" - he mentioned a number of things, but 'Amr said that he did not remember them. Then he said: "Does it not please you that the people are leaving with sheep and camels, and you are leaving with the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ. The Anṣâr are inner garments and the people are outer garments. Were it not for the Hijrah, I would have been one of the Anṣâr. If the people were to follow a valley or mountain pass, I would follow the valley or mountain pass of the Anṣâr. It was narrated from ‘Ubaidullâh bin Abî Râfi‘, the freed slave of the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ, that when the Harûriyyah rebelled, he was with ‘Alî bin Abî Tâlib [may Allâh be pleased with him]. They said: “There is no command but that of Allâh.” ‘Alî said: “These are true words being used for false purposes. The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ described some people, and I recognize their characteristics in these people. ‘They will speak the truth on their tongues but it will not go any further than this’ - and he pointed to his throat - ‘and they are the most hated of Allâh’s creation to Him. Among them will be a black man, one of whose arms is like the teat of a sheep’ or ‘a nipple.’” When ‘Alî bin Abî Tâlib [may Allâh be pleased with him] killed them, he said: “Look (for that man).” They looked but did not find anything. He told them: “Go back, for by Allâh, I did not lie nor was I lied to” - (he said this) two or three times.

Chapter 49. The Khawârij Are The Most Evil Of People And Of All Creation

[2469] 158 - (1067) It was narrated that Abû Dharr said: “The Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said: ‘After me among my Ummah there will be people who recite the Qur’ân, but it does not go any further than their throats. Then he went in and we entered upon him, and on that day he was at the house of Zainab bint Jahsh. Each of us urged the other to speak, then one of us spoke and said: 'O Messenger of Allâh, you are the kindest of people and the best in upholding ties of kinship. We have reached the age of marriage, and we have come so that you might appoint us in charge of some of this charity, so that we may do for you what the people do, and get what they get.' He remained silent for a long time, until we wanted to speak again, but Zainab gestured to us from behind the curtain not to speak. Then he said: 'The charity is not appropriate for the family of Muḥammad, rather it is the dirt of the people. Call Maḥmiyah for me' - who was in charge of the Khums - 'and Nawfal bin Al-Ḥârith bin 'Abdu-Muṭṭalib.' They came, and he said to Maḥmiyah: 'Give your daughter in marriage to this young man' - meaning Al-Faḍl bin 'Abbâs, and he did so. And he said in it: “Alî spread his Ridâ’ and lay down on it, and he said: ‘I am Abû Hasan, the chief, and by Allâh I will not move from my place until your two sons come back to you with the reply to the request with which you sent them to the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ.’”

And he said in the Hadîth: “Then he said to us: ‘This charity is the dirt of the people, and it is not permissible for Muḥammad nor for the family of Muḥammad ﷺ.’” And he said: “Then the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ said: ‘Call Maḥmiyah bin Jazî for me.’ He was a man from Banû Asad whom the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ had appointed in charge of the Khums.”

Clarifying That Fasting Begins At Dawn, And A Person May Eat And Other Than That Until Dawn Begins; And Clarifying The Dawn Which Has To Do With The Rulings Concerning The Beginning Of Fasting And The Beginning Of The Time For The Ṣubḥ Prayer, And Other Than That, Which Is The Second Dawn, Which Is Called The True Dawn. The First Dawn, Which Is The False Dawn, Has Nothing To Do With The Rulings

Chapter 14. The Strict Prohibition Of Intercourse During The Day In Ramaḍān For One Who Is Fasting; And The Obligation Of Offering Major Expiation And The Definition Thereof; And That It Is Obligatory For Both The One Who Can Afford It And The One Who Cannot Afford It, And It Remains An Obligation For The One Who Cannot Afford It Until He Has The Means

[2595] 81 - (1111) It was narrated that Abû Hurairah said: "A man came to the Prophet ﷺ and said: 'I am doomed, O Messenger of Allāh!' He said: 'What has doomed you?' He said: 'I had intercourse with my wife in Ramaḍān.' He said: 'Do you have the means to free a slave?' He said: 'No.' He said: 'Can you fast for two consecutive months?' He said: 'No.' He said: 'Do you have the means to feed sixty poor people?' He said: 'No.' Then he sat down, and a large basket of dates was brought to the Prophet ﷺ. He said: 'Give this in charity.' He said: 'Is there anyone poorer than us? There is no family between the two fields of volcanic rock (meaning between the two mountains of Al-Maḍīnah) that is more in need of it than us.' The Prophet ﷺ smiled until his eyeteeth were visible, then he said: 'Go and feed it to your family.'"
